

IIM-C holds virtual convocation

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Kolkata: The Indian Institute of Management Calcutta held its annual convocation as a virtual ceremony due to the Covid-19 pandemic on Saturday, in which 462 students of the 56th batch of the two-year flagship MBA programme were awarded their degrees and 61 students were awarded for the one-year MBAEx Programme. The diplomas were announced for 36 students in Post Graduate Programme for Executives for Visionary Leadership in Manufacturing and for 57 students in Post Graduate Diploma in Business Analytics.

COVID SAFETY MEASURES

The institute also awarded 14 students their PhD.

Starting this year, a new doctoral student award — Nirmal Chandra Memorial Doctoral Student Award — has been instituted for PhD graduating candidates who obtain the highest CGPA. IIM Calcutta alumnus and chief economic advisor to the centre Krishnamurthy Subramanian was the chief guest at the event. Students, except for doctoral students have been sent home due to the pandemic.