IIM-Calcutta Students awarded Best Teams Awards at X-Culture 2020

SHERIN TRESSA TOMY

PUBLISHED ON:JAN 18, 2021 10:13 IST
MODIFIED ON: JAN 18, 2021 10:13 IST

Indian Institute of Management Calcutta has been awarded the Best Teams Award at X-Culture 2020-2 Competition. According to reports, five of the students have been awarded for developing solutions to real-life problems posed by different corporates and professionals. The students who have been awarded were members of separate teams which participated in the competition conducted.

The winners will be provided with opportunities to work in the professional world and gain real-life corporate exposure. The winners have also been awarded $2,000 as cash prize, post market commissions for solutions while some of the students may also be awarded with permanent or regular employment opportunities with the participating companies. The x-Culture Best Teams Awards were granted to Soham Basu Chaudhry, Arum Sharma, Haritha Unnikrishnan, Ikjot Kaur, and Ritika Verma wose teams were mentored by Professor Ramya Venkatshwaran.

Apart from IIM Calcutta, 41 more groups were adjudged as best teams' from the 1,2777 participating teams.

To check the complete list of winners of the competition and the details regarding X Culture 2020 students can visit the official website of the direct link provided below.

X-Culture Winners List