The Joka B-school has hiked the course fee for its two-year MBA programme to Rs 25 lakh from Rs 23 lakh. The revised fee was announced after the convocation, held in-person after a gap of two years. Manish Thakur, dean (new initiatives and external relations), said the institute did not hike the fee for the past two years because of the Covid-induced economic distress faced by some students and their families. Altogether, 479 candidates of the 57th batch of the two-year flagship MBA programme were awarded their degrees. Also among the awardees were 79 candidates of the one-year MBAEx (executive) programme. IIM-C alumnus and managing director and CEO of the Bombay Stock Exchange, Ashish Chauhan, delivered the convocation address.
